

The Future of Our Nation is in the Hands of the Intercessor

Behold the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; nor his ear heavy that it cannot hear. But your iniquities have separated you from your God; and your sins have hidden His face from you, so that He will not hear. For Your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue has muttered perversity. No one calls for justice, nor does any plead for truth. They trust in empty words and speak lies; They conceive evil and bring forth iniquity...So truth fails, and it displeased Him that there was no justice. He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor; Therefore His own arm brought salvation for Him; and His own righteousness, it sustained Him. For He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on His head; He put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak...So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun; When the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him (Isaiah 59:1-4,15-17,19).

So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one (Ezekiel 22:30).

Behold I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse (Malachi 4:5-6).

Who knows if He will turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind Him- A grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD your God? (Joel 2:14).

The Crisis

America is at a critical juncture, whichever way the nation goes from here will change the course of history. Right now our generation is filled with complacency, compromise, perversion, and selfishness. Just take a look at a statistic that was taken back in 1990.

75% of world's population live in countries where abortion is legal, though regarded by most Christians as murder; 25 % of all pregnancies worldwide end in abortion, resulting in 65 million abortions a year of which 38% are illegal. (America's Providential History p.2)

Since Roe v. Wade along around 55 million babies have been killed in the name of choice. To make this statistic more than numbers that adds up to one third of our generation destroyed and never given a chance. They were murdered. Every day in the United States alone around 4,000 children are aborted which is around a thousand more than the number killed in the 9/11 terrorist attack. One reason why our generation struggles to pay for the social security of the baby boomer generation is because of all of our brothers and sisters we have aborted.

To make the matters worse the abortion industry ever since the beginning has been targeting minority groups such as African Americans and Latinos. Margaret Sanger herself, the founder of Planned Parenthood, said that blacks were “intolerable breeders” and “human weeds”. She believed in a system called Eugenics which means good birth if you broke it down in the Greek language. She believed that races that were favorable and beneficial such as Anglo-Saxon should be preserved and should thrive.

Minority groups were regarded as “intolerable” and should be eliminated. Sound familiar. This is exactly what Adolf Hitler did in Germany during the 1930s and the 1940s against the Jews and others. God in this hour is raising up a generation to come against the abortion holocaust in this nation and begin to stand for the Lord's holy cause.

The Eugenics movement still remains embedded in the abortion industry. 80% of all abortion mills are located in minority neighborhoods according to the Susan B. Anthony List. The number one cause of death in the Black community is abortion. It is greater than homicide and it is greater than AIDS. The African American community actually is decreasing because of abortions (www.bound4life.com, www.toomanyaborted.com)

Another startling fact is that women are simple aborting their children because they are girls and also because their felt like they were being forced.

Gender-selective abortion is a reality right here in the United States. In a recent report by California doctor Sunita Puri in Social Science and Medicine, Dr. Puri wrote that after interviewing immigrant women in the United States over several years, 89% of women she spoke to that were pregnant with girl children opted to abort their child and nearly half of those women had also previously aborted their girl babies. Oftentimes, Dr. Puri reported, the mothers were forced by their families or husbands to kill their unwanted baby girls against their will. Some women faced physical abuse at the hands of their families to induce a miscarriage or to coerce them into abortion. (Susan B. Anthony List).

This is only one issue. What branches off this issue alone is human trafficking, pornography, and orphan care. In order for America to end abortion the Church needs to rise up and meets these needs and truly walk in partnership with Jesus like we were supposed to. America needs a moral awakening. But here is the problem, there is no intercessor. According to God's perspective, He is looking for someone not only to pray for justice, but also to do acts of justice. God is looking for men and women who would deny themselves for the sake of Jesus and follow Him. This is not easy job. The only way to fully live this ministry out is by having your life first flowing out of intimacy with Jesus.

The Heart of God

God longs for His people to return to Him. This can clearly be seen by the word of the Lord spoken by Jeremiah.

The LORD said also to me in the days of Josiah the king: “Have you seen what backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there played the harlot. And I said, after she had done all these things, 'Return to Me'. But she did not return. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it (Jeremiah 3:6-7).

“Go and proclaim these words toward the north and say: 'Return, backsliding Israel,' says the LORD; I will not cause My anger to fall on you. For I am merciful,' says the LORD; I will not remain angry forever. Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against the LORD your God, and have scattered your charms to alien deities under every green tree, and you have not obeyed My voice,' says the LORD. Return, O backsliding children," says the LORD, "For I am married to you. I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. And I will give you shepherds according to My heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding" (Jeremiah 3:12-15).

"And he (the younger son) arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, His Father saw Him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck (embraced him) and kissed him" (Luke 15:20).

This is the nature of our Father. When I see Luke 15:20 I see the days and months that the Father looked towards the hills and the countryside and says, "O son, return to Me". Jesus longs to be with His people and sin is the dividing line. All you have to do is repent and come to the Cross of Christ.

Day in and day our Jeremiah would prophesy to the people of Israel. In around 620 B.C he was born and when he was only a youth (610-600 B.C?) he began to prophesy that the nation would come to Jesus and turn from their wicked ways. Jeremiah was known as the weeping prophet because his words revealed the cry deep within the heart of the Father.

The Response

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: "Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me" (Isaiah 6:8).

In the midst of the darkest hours of history God raised up a breed who would raise up the standard in a nation or a region. They were called the Nazirites (Numbers 6) and God is raising you up to be sent to do the will of the Father.

Living a life of partnership with Jesus can only be done by first living in the place of intimacy with Jesus. If this is not the foundation of our ministry before the Lord then burnout is soon to follow. God wants to establish us as extravagant lovers and anointed delivers of people. There is power to a focused life and my life vision is to be an extravagant lover of God and anointed deliverer of people. God raise up extravagant lovers for You and anointed delivers of people. God end abortion in this land. Raise up forerunners to say yes to Jesus. God has put some of the future in the hands of the intercessor.

Who knows if He will turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind Him- A grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD your God (Joel 2:14).
